

IRISH KENNEL CLUB

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR OBEDIENCE TESTS

LICENCE APPLICATIONS

Must be submitted sixty (60) days before the event if the nominated Judge is from overseas, otherwise an application must be lodged not less than five weeks in advance of the event.

SCHEDULE

The Society must issue a Schedule which shall form the basis of a contract between the Society and those entering dogs. The Society may make regulations subject to the approval of the Irish Kennel Club, but no such regulations shall conflict with any Rule or Regulation of the Irish Kennel Club. In the case of any conflict, the Rules and Regulation of the Irish Kennel Club shall prevail. No modifications may be made to the Schedule before the date of the show, except by permission of the Irish Kennel Club and such modifications, if possible, must be advertised.

Two copies of the schedule must be lodged with the Irish Kennel Club at least thirty five days before the date of the show in the case of a Panel Judge, and sixty days before the date of the show in the case of an Overseas Judge.

The schedule must contain:-

- (a) The name of the Society.
- (b) The venue.
- (c) The date of the show.
- (d) The names of guarantors.
- (e) The name and address of veterinary surgeon.
- (f) The secretary's name and address.
- (g) The closing date for entries.
- (h) The time of opening of the show and proposed running order of classes.
- (i) Name(s) of judge(s) with the name of each class.
- (j) The amount of entry fee and any prize money.
- (k) Definition of all classes scheduled.
- (l) A statement that the show is held under Irish Kennel Club Rules and Regulations.
- (m) A statement that the organisers reserve the right to refuse any entry.
- (n) A statement that dogs under 6 months of age are not eligible to enter.
- (o) A statement that dogs must be registered or transferred with the Irish Kennel Club save in the case of Greyhounds duly registered with the Irish Coursing Club.
- (p) A separate official entry form with the Irish Kennel Club approved declaration.
- (q) All offers of sponsorship or donations with the names of sponsors.
- (r) A statement that all wins prior to the day specified for the closing of entries shall be taken into account when entering any class.
- (s) A statement that it is the competitors responsibility to be available for their class.
- (t) A statement that the mating of bitches within the precincts of the showground is forbidden.
- (u) A statement that no bitch in season is allowed to compete.
- (v) A statement that should a Judge be unable to fulfil the appointment to judge the Committee reserve the right to appoint another Judge.
- (w) A statement that should circumstances so dictate the Society, in consultation with the Judges may alter arrangement as necessary. Such changes and the circumstances surrounding them must be reported to the Irish Kennel Club.
- (x) A statement that each exhibitor is responsible for keeping their dog under proper control at all times.

REGISTRATIONS

Every dog exhibited or competing at any Show, Field Trial or Obedience Test must be registered with the Irish Kennel Club in the name of the Exhibitor or Competitor save in the case of Greyhounds duly registered with the Irish Coursing Club, or dogs not of a recognised breed and which are not of pure breeding and for which Licences have been approved by the Irish Kennel Club for Obedience and Agility Tests and any Trials of a working nature.

REGISTRATION NON-PEDIGREE DOGS

The Irish Kennel Club may issue a Licence for a Non-Pedigree dog to compete in Obedience Tests. It is a condition that such dogs must be Micro Chipped or Tattooed with the number issued by the Irish Kennel Club when the dog is so licensed. Veterinary Surgeons and persons approved by the Obedience Rules Committee are allowed to tattoo dogs. Alternatively such dogs may be identified by microchip.

SPAYED BITCHES & CASTRATED DOGS

Both spayed bitches and castrated dogs are permitted to compete in Obedience Classes, provided they are registered pedigree dogs or licensed non-pedigree dogs.

JUDGES

Judges for Obedience Tests shall be appointed by the Society and must be approved by the Irish Kennel Club. In the event of a Judge being unavailable, then the Society may appoint another Judge as substitute. In such cases the issue of Green Stars shall be subject to the approval of the substitute Judge by the Irish Kennel Club.

In addition to judging and competitive experience consideration will be given to applicant's attendance at relevant courses, stewarding experience, actual number of bona fide dogs judged, personal qualities etc.

Appointment or promotion to an Obedience Judging Panel is at the discretion of the Irish Kennel Club and it reserves the right to refuse any appointment or promotion to a Judges Panel without explanation.

JUDGES LIST & REVISION OF SAME

The Irish Kennel Club will issue to all Societies panels of Judges for Obedience Tests, Working Trials and Agility Tests. These panels shall be reviewed in June each year and the additions must be proposed by an Affiliated Club to arrive at the Irish Kennel Club not later than 31st May. Judges not so listed must submit a questionnaire with details of their qualifications and experience.

Any Judges considered for addition to any Panel must be recommended to the Irish Kennel Club by an Affiliated Club which must have established the intention of such nominees to judge when required.

JUDGES QUALIFICATIONS

Panel 'C' - Eligible to judge Beginners and Novice Obedience

Applicants for addition to Panel 'C' must be recommended by an Affiliated Club and have at least won out of Beginners Obedience. This panel is for judges who have not judged Obedience Classes under the Rules and Regulations of the Irish Kennel Club. Stewarding experience at this level is required.

Panel 'B' - Eligible to judge Graduate, Limit and Open Obedience

To apply for promotion to Panel 'B' the applicant must have judged at least five classes, to include two Beginners and two Novice Obedience Classes under the Rules & Regulations of the Irish Kennel Club. To be promoted to judge Graduate and Limit Obedience the applicant must also have won out of or had four wins in Graduate. To be promoted to judge an Open Obedience Class (at Open Shows) an Obedience Judge must have been placed at least four times in an Open Obedience class. Stewarding experience at this level is required. Judges in Panel 'B' may judge for any number of appointments in the calendar year but not award Green Stars.

Panel 'A' - Championship Open

To apply for promotion to Panel 'A' the applicant must have judged at least 8 Obedience Classes, to include five Open Obedience Classes, as a 'B' Judge under the Rules & Regulations of the Irish Kennel Club. Additionally they themselves must have competed in Open Obedience at Championship level losing not more than ten points on four occasions. Stewarding experience at this level is required. Judges on Panel 'A' may judge any number of appointments in a calendar year but not award more than two Green Stars in that period.

JUDGES DOMICILED IN NORTHERN IRELAND

Judges properly resident in Co. Antrim, Co. Armagh, Co. Down, Co. Derry, Co. Fermanagh and Co. Tyrone may apply to be considered by the Irish Kennel Club for inclusion on the Obedience Judges panels.

They must be proposed by an Affiliated Club and fulfil the following criteria:-

Panel 'C' - Eligible to judge Beginners and Novice Obedience.

Applicants for addition to Panel 'C' must have at least won out of Novice under English Kennel Club rules.

Panel 'B' - Eligible to judge Graduate, Limit and Open Obedience.

To apply for promotion or addition to Panel 'B' applicants must have at least won two Class Cs under English Kennel Club rules and have judged a minimum of five Obedience Classes in total.

Panel 'A' - Championship Open Obedience.

To apply for promotion or addition to Panel 'A' applicant must have won at least four Class Cs under English Kennel Club rules and have judged a minimum of eight classes in total to include five Class Cs.

FOREIGN JUDGES

Judges from other countries may judge Obedience Classes provided they have judged at the same level in their own country and submit their qualifications for approval by the Irish Kennel Club.

Once an overseas Judge is approved and has awarded a Green Star in the Open Obedience, that Judge will be placed on the Overseas Obedience Judges List.

NUMBERS TO BE JUDGED	The maximum number of dogs to be judged by one Judge at any Obedience Show is not to exceed 50. A Reserve Judge to be nominated in the Schedule. In the event of the entries not exceeding 50, the reserve Judge may compete at the event.
ORDER OF JUDGING	A Society by publication in the schedule may reserve the right to vary the order of judging when the entry is known.
GREEN STARS	A win of first prize in any Open Obedience Class at Championship level which is open to all dogs shall count as a 1 point Green Star provided that the winner has not lost more than 10 points out of 300 and that a minimum of three dogs compete in the class.
OBEDIENCE WINS	In the event of the leading dog losing more than 10 marks in any of the 5 Obedience Classes such wins will not be recorded and will not count when entering further competitions.
OBEDIENCE CHAMPION	A dog which shall have won 5 Green Star Points in Open Obedience Classes at Championship Level under at least three different judges shall be termed an Obedience Champion.
CLASSES	For Open Obedience and Championship Obedience Tests a Show Society must schedule all of the following classes:- Beginners, Novice, Graduate, Limit, Open.
STEWARDS	The Show executive shall ensure that Caller Stewards are appointed for each class scheduled.
SCOREBOARDS	Master Ringside Score Sheets must be provided by the Show Executive for each class scheduled. These must be completed by the Judge or Steward after each competitor's round.
REPORTING ROUTINE	It is the responsibility of the competitor to report to the Ring Steward.
TIME OF STAYS	The time of stays for that class will be decided upon and marked up on the ringside scoresheet by the Judge prior to the commencement of judging. Where a competitor is entered in more than one class and running orders clash the Show Manager shall ensure that the Judges concerned facilitate the competitor. Any dog which is not presented for stay or scent exercise when called for testing will be considered to have withdrawn from the class.

IRISH KENNEL CLUB GENERAL RULES FOR OBEDIENCE TESTS

- a. In all classes the dog should work in a happy and natural manner. Prime consideration should be given to judging the dog and handler as a team. The dog's name may be used simultaneously with command or signal without penalty. The dog may be encouraged and praised except where specifically stated.
- b. All competitors must show respect for the judge. Training rounds will only be allowed if prior permission has been given by the judge.
- c. In all tests the left side of a handler will be regarded as the "working side", unless the handler suffers from a physical disability and has the judge's permission to work the dog on the right-hand side.
- d. Instructions and commands to competitors may be made either by the Judge or the Steward by delegation.
- e. It is permissible for handlers to practise their dogs before going into the ring provided there is no punitive correction and no distraction caused to dogs working.
- f. The dog should be led into the ring for judging with a collar and lead attached (unless otherwise directed) and should be at the handler's side. A competitor may withdraw from competition but the Judge must be advised of the decision to withdraw.
- g. 'Left About Turns' in Heelwork are only permissible in Limit and Open Classes at slow or normal pace at the Judge's discretion.
- h. Imperfections in heeling between tests will not be judged, but any physical disciplining by the handler in the ring, and/or any uncontrolled behaviour of the dog, such as snapping, unjustified barking, fouling the ring, or running out of the ring, even between tests, must be penalised by deducting points from the total score and the Judge may bar the dog from further competition in the class.
- i. Food may not be given or carried in the ring. Any other article carried by the handler is subject to the Judge's discretion and must be indicated by the Judge prior to the commencement of the test.
- j. In the event of a dog disturbing another competing dog during any exercise, then the competitor, at the discretion of the Judge, is entitled to a second chance.
- k. In any test where articles are used, none of the articles must be injurious to the dog, and must be capable of being picked up by any dog entering in the class.
- l. A bitch in season shall not be allowed to compete at Obedience Tests.
- m. Handlers may use only a check chain or smooth collar in the ring.
- n. Every handler must wear his ring number prominently displayed when in the ring.
- o. Judging rings must be a minimum of 12.5 x 12.5 metres and where possible 16.5 x 16.5 metres. The boundary must be clearly defined.
- p. No person shall carry out punitive correction or harsh handling of a dog at any time while on the show ground.

- q. With the exception of scent tests in any class the order in which tests are undertaken is at the discretion of the Judge. However all the dogs in a class should complete the tests in the same order. Scent tests however must not be carried out during the main ring work but will take place as a separate test at the discretion of the Judge. The Judge may relax the running order where necessary.
- r. In all tests points must be graduated.
- s. No variations to any test within a class may be made. 'Run Offs' will be judged, one at a time, by normal scheduled tests until a winner is determined, and the judges shall have the final decision as to what exercise or exercises may be used.
- t. Timetable of judging - To assist Show Executives the following guide timetable is issued:-

Open Class	8 dogs per hour
Limit Class	10 dogs per hour
Graduate Class	12 dogs per hour
Novice Class	12 dogs per hour
Beginners Class	15 dogs per hour

This timetable does not allow for the time allotted to Scent and Stay exercises

- u. No competitor may impugn the Judge's decision.
- v. To signal completion of test the handler will be given the command 'Test Finished'.

IRISH KENNEL CLUB RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR OBEDIENCE TESTS
EXPLANATORY NOTES

1. Heel on Lead:
The dog should be sitting straight at the handler's side. On command the handler should walk briskly forward in a straight line with the dog at heel. The dog's shoulder should be approximately level with, and reasonably close to, the handler's leg at all times when the handler is walking. The lead must be slack at all times. On the command 'Left Turn' or 'Right Turn' the handler should turn smartly at a right angle in the appropriate direction and the dog should keep its position at the handler's side. Unless otherwise directed on the command 'About Turn' the handler should turn about smartly through an angle of 180 degrees to the right and walk in the opposite direction, the dog maintaining its position at the handler's side. On the command 'Halt' the handler should halt immediately and the dog should sit straight at the handler's side. Throughout this test the handler may not touch the dog or make use of the lead without penalty.

2. Heel Free:
This test should be carried out in a similar manner as for Heel on Lead, except that the dog must be off lead throughout the test.

3. Recall:
See specific class tests.

4. Retrieve a Dumb-bell/Article:
See specific class tests.

5. Stay Tests:
This is a group test and all dogs must compete together where this is impracticable at any show the class may be divided.
 - (a) Sit Stay:
The Judge or Steward will direct handlers to positions in the ring. The number of dogs and handlers per stay steward in any class or test must not exceed six. The order 'Last Command' will be given to handlers who should then instantly give their final command to their dogs. Any further commands or signals after this 'Last Command' will be penalised by the loss of the entire marks for that exercise. Handlers will then be instructed to leave their dogs and walk to the positions indicated until ordered to return to them. Dogs should remain at the sit position throughout the test.
 - (b) Down Stay:
This test should be carried out exactly as for the Sit Stay, except that dogs will be left in the Down position throughout the test.

6. Scent Tests:
The Judge must not place his/her cloth in the ring. It must be placed by a Steward. The decoy must be placed by the Decoy Steward. The decoy must not be held by the decoy steward for a period longer than the Judge holds his/her cloth.

To commence the test the dog should be facing away from the cloths. On command the handler should bring the dog to the point indicated, give the scent and stand upright before sending the dog to find and retrieve the appropriate cloth. The dog should find the cloth and complete the test as for the Retrieve Test. If a dog fetches or fouls a wrong cloth this must be replaced by a fresh one. Cloths used for scent must not be commercially impregnated cloths. All cloths must be weighted for open-air shows and to be a minimum of six inches by six inches and maximum of ten inches by ten inches. A separate similar piece of cloth shall be available to be used for giving each dog the scent. Judges should use scent decoys. Cloths are to be placed a minimum of two feet and a maximum of four feet apart and a minimum of two yards from any of the ring boundaries. Limiting the time allowed for this test is at the Judge's discretion. The Judge must announce to each competitor before the commencement of the exercise if there is (1) a time limit (2) a scent area and it must be the same for each dog.
